Consumer Notes:

As the leaves turn and people start going back to school, typically some of the biggest sellers are released. This year is no exception: Pioneer is releasing their Armitage movie whose dub cast includes Kiefer Sutherland and Elizabeth Berkley ... with voices like those we suspect this one will do quite well. There's a new (more adult) version of Advancer Tina this month, as well as the second volume of UJin's Visionary (also adult): if you enjoy this sort of product they're titles to look at. Daria, the Beavis and Butthead spinoff, comes to tape in October, and includes a 5½ minute black and white pilot film in addition to three episodes (and it's priced right). Finally, we're pleased to be bringing out the first volume of The Irresponsible Captain Tylor ... a show which you owe it to yourself to take a look at. Once you watch, you'll see what we mean!

OCIOBER 1997

Special Note 1:

You may have wondered if we were listening to your comments... the answer is yes. The most requested change in our monthly product listings was for running times to be included, and now they are! Thanks to all the people who offer their comments, criticisms, and kudos... we really do value your input!

Special Note 2:

As the holidays approach, don't get caught short! We're bringing in extra inventory for the season, but there's always the possibility that we'll run short on specific items (particularly non-video items). We fully expect this to be a banner holiday season for anime with titles like Dragonball Z, Armitage III, and The Irresponsible Captain Tylor! Call us if you have any questions or need more information.

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH |

Again at the risk of sounding disingenuous, I absolutely MUST go with The Irresponsible Captain Tylor. This title, heavily anticipated for years in fannish circles, is sure to be a hit! Also, I'd look at Fred Schodt's new book America and the Four Japans. I've yet to be disappointed with any of this man's excellent work!
